

Edwardian Demantoid Garnet, Pearl, Diamond and Silver Upon Gold
Brooch, Circa 1905
£14,000.00

An Edwardian demantoid garnet, pearl, diamond, silver and gold brooch, featuring three bows at the top, joined by a curve, with a geometric and curved garland below, all grain set with old-cut diamonds, with the diamonds in the centre of the bows in rub over settings, decorated with millegrain edges, mounted in silver-upon-gold, with green enamel on gold laurel leaf garlands, terminating with natural pearl drops and topped with tiny emeralds, with a pendant, suspending from the centre bow, with diamond set leaves and an oval faceted demantoid garnet, in a gold rub over setting, with a pin and hinged C catch fitting and loops for a chain, with an Austro-Hungarian mark for imported gold goods of foreign origin and more recent French owl and swan import marks for retailing in France, in fitted burgundy leather case, with gold garland tooling and purple velvet and satin linings, circa 1905.

Country of origin: European, exported for retail into the Austro-Hungarian Empire
Approximate weight: 13.46 grams

Origin	European Other
Period	Early 1900s
Style	Edwardian
Condition	Good
Materials	Gold
Main Gemstone	Green Garnet
Dimensions	Length 52mm, width 50.8mm
Secondary Gemstone	Diamond

Antique ref: XWAT31025B