

A Chinese Vase POA

of small size and inverted baluster form, the body decorated in cobalt with raised moulded lotus-shaped panels of maidens alternating with panels of blossoms, above a band of hares reserved in white on a blue ground, the shoulder with floral sprays and further sprays around the ridged neck, the spreading foot with geometric hatch patterns, the base glazed and with an artemisia leaf.

Period: Kangxi (1662-1722)

Origin	Chinese
Period	18th Century
Dimensions	Height: 15.5 cms 6.25 inches

Antique ref: BJ62