

Chopard 4527 Inner & outer box 5 floating diamonds
£3,600.00

Watch: Chopard Happy Diamonds 4527

Stock Number: CHW6671

Price: £3600.00

The Chopard Happy Diamonds 4527 is a beautifully crafted high-end jewellery watch — more artwork than timepiece, showcasing Chopard's iconic floating diamonds that dance effortlessly between two sapphire crystals with each movement of the wrist.

Purchased at Laing's in the UK in December 2017 for £6500.00 (original purchase receipt included), Authentication card included from November 2025.

Crafted in 18k yellow gold with a refined ~26mm case, this elegant model features a mother-of-pearl dial and is powered by a quartz movement for reliable everyday wear. Paired with its original Chopard black leather strap and signed gold-tone buckle, this example remains wonderfully complete and extremely collectible. With very few currently available in the UK, it is a truly rare find.

Our View

The Happy Diamonds collection is already legendary — but the solid gold reference 4527 stands above most offerings due to its rarity and jewellery-first craftsmanship. Pairing the original strap and buckle with the iconic floating diamond display makes this a truly special collector's piece and a perfect gift for someone who appreciates elegance and exclusivity.
