TAG Heuer Carrera Ladies Quartz – Mother of Pearl Diamond Dial – Ref. – Two-Tone Rose Gold

Elegant, refined, and effortlessly versatile, this TAG Heuer Carrera Ladies Quartz WAR1352 perfectly balances sporty performance with feminine sophistication. Featuring a shimmering white mother-of-pearl dial set with diamonds, this Carrera is designed to transition seamlessly from everyday wear to more formal occasions.

The dial is adorned with 12 Top Wesselton diamond hour markers (total carat weight 0.10ct), complemented by polished rose gold plated hands and markers. A neatly framed date window sits at 3 o'clock, adding practicality without disrupting the clean, luxurious aesthetic.

Housed in a polished stainless steel case and protected by a scratch-resistant sapphire crystal with double anti-reflective coating, this Carrera is built for real-world wear. The two-tone bracelet, combining stainless steel with 18k rose gold-capped links, enhances its elegant yet contemporary appeal. Powered by a Swiss quartz movement, it delivers the precision and reliability TAG Heuer is renowned for.

Our View

This Carrera is a superb example of TAG Heuer's ability to combine jewellery-level elegance with genuine watchmaking credibility. The diamond-set mother-of-pearl dial is eye-catching without being overdone, while the two-tone bracelet adds warmth and versatility. A sophisticated yet practical ladies watch that works just as well for daily wear as it does for special occasions.
