Rolex Datejust 36 – Champagne Dial – Fluted Gold Bezel – Ref. 16013

A quick polish in our workshop and a routine check-up was all this classic Rolex Datejust needed. Presented in excellent working order, this Rolex Datejust 16013 is a timeless two-tone icon, prized for its elegant proportions, reliable movement and unmistakable Rolex design language.

Introduced in the late 1970s, this one produced in 1979, the 16013 showcases Rolex's signature Yellow gold and stainless steel bracelet, paired here with a classic champagne dial and fluted yellowgold bezel. A perfect balance of vintage charm and everyday wearability, this is a referencethat never goes out of style.

About the Reference

The Rolex 16013 is one of the most recognisable vintage Datejust references. The Calibre 3035 brought the convenience of a quick-set date, while the Jubilee bracelet and fluted bezel cemented the model's reputation as Rolex's ultimate everyday luxury watch.

Our View

The Datejust 16013 remains a cornerstone of vintage Rolex collecting. This example benefits from a fresh polish, strong overall condition and the warm, classic appeal of the champagne dial. Yes, the bracelet shows some sagging—but that's entirely normal for a watch of this era and part of its vintage character. A fantastic opportunity to own a true Rolex classic that works just as well today as it did decades ago
