

Columbian emerald and diamond brooch POA

A fine brooch centred with a square-cut emerald, framed by old-cut diamonds within an intricate openwork mount of scrolling foliate design. The style and workmanship are characteristic of circa 1895-1915.

A richly detailed and elegant example of turn-of-the-century jewellery.

Period	Early 1900s
---------------	-------------

Main Gemstone	Emerald
----------------------	---------

Antique ref: FTJAEIX5-24112512