A huge amount of watch for the money this Breitling Superocean Heritage reference A2337036/BB81 packs a punch. This one from 2014 complete with box and papers in addition to a recent service.

Condition, lets make it clear that this watch is in excellent condition throughout having had a recent polish. Barely a mark on it the bracelet and case show no blemishes the dial is free of any marks and the bezel is very good all round apart from that visible scratch between 10 and 11 clearly shown in the photos. Glass has a light scratch in the centre if looked up close in a certain light.

Working Order - As good as it can be running at just + a few seconds per day, pressure tested to 30 meters.

The watch itself has a 44mm stainless steel case. Black dial with the date at 6 and sub dials at 3 and 9 for the chronograph functions that all work as they should. Silver hands that have luminous fill and a sweeping vibrant red stopwatch hand.

Sapphire domed crystal, waterproof to 20 meters. Automatic movement (Breitling 23) with a 42 hour power reserve.

Original mesh bracelet with spare link. Inner and outer box, warranty card, certificate and manual included
