

Victorian 9ct Gold, Black Enamel & Seed Pearl Bangle c.1880 POA

A striking late Victorian 9ct yellow gold hinged bangle featuring a central row of shimmering seed pearls set against a band of glossy black enamel. The bold monochrome palette offers a sophisticated, timeless look that remains highly wearable today. The bangle is designed with a soft contour to fit the wrist comfortably and features a secure push in clasp with its original safety chain.

A sophisticated addition to any collection, perfect as a solo statement or to lead your antique bangle wrist stack.
