

14ct Aquamarine & Enamel Art Deco Bracelet - Spectrum Antiques POA

A striking Art Deco bracelet in rich 14ct yellow gold, decorated with beautifully crisp aquamarine and enamel panels. The design is bold and architectural, with that clean geometric feel that defines the best jewellery of the 1920s.

The soft blue aquamarine contrasts perfectly against the enamelled detailing, giving the bracelet both colour and structure, while still remaining elegant on the wrist. A rare and highly wearable piece — ideal for collectors of Deco jewellery or anyone looking for something truly distinctive.
