

Pair of Chinese famille-verte chargers, Kangxi (1668-1722), POA

Pair of large famille verte 'flower baskets' dishes

Pair of Chinese famille-verte chargers, Kangxi (1668-1722), with gently barbed rim, decorated with a central ruyi-head band enclosing a basket of flowers, surrounded by eight variously shaped cartouches containing flowers including peony, orchid, prunus and chrysanthemum issuing from rockwork, against a green stippled ground scattered with stylised lotus heads, the rim with six further cartouches containing fruiting boughs, against various green floral cell grounds with large ruyi heads, the reverse with four peony sprays and an artemisia leaf within concentric circles to the base.

Provenance:- from a private estate

Material and Technique	porcelain
Origin	Chinese
Period	17th Century

Antique ref: AA35