www.graysantiques.co.uk

Downstairs at Grays: A very fine 18ct White Gold (Tested), 1.20 Carat (approximately), Diamond Cross, with an articulated bail and later 18ct White Gold Chain.

£4,200.00

An exquisite mid-to-late 20th-Century statement piece, this breath-taking Pendant Cross is meticulously crafted in tested 18ct White Gold which suspends gracefully from a later, perfectly matched 18ct White Gold chain. At its heart lies a magnificent 0.30-carat Natural Round Brilliant-Cut Diamond of exceptional G colour and SI2 clarity, radiating timeless brilliance.

This central gemstone is beautifully framed by a further sixteen Single and Round Brilliant-Cut Diamonds, independently assessed at 0.90 carats, displaying an impressive G to H colour and VS2 to SI1 clarity range.

Designed with a sophisticated articulated bail, the pendant catches the light with every movement. Combining vintage charm with contemporary luxury, this striking piece is accompanied by an independent gemmologist’s report confirming its superb quality, all Diamond weights are approximate due to their secure, original mountings.

Condition	Consistent with age
Materials	White Gold
Main Gemstone	Diamond
Carat for Gold	18 K

Antique ref: 5873