Zenith Defy 01.0060.345 – 35mm – Blue/Grey “Linen” Dial – Original Sharkskin Strap – 1970s

A very cool and increasingly hard-to-find Zenith Defy reference 01.0060.345, dating from the 1970s and presented in very good condition throughout. This is a classic Defy with strong vintage character, featuring a beautifully textured blue-grey dial whose fine wave pattern gives an almost linen-like appearance. A proper 1970s sports watch with real presence and originality.

Recently tested and passed through our workshop, this example is running strongly and comes with our 12-month mechanical guarantee.

Our View

The Zenith Defy is one of the brand's most characterful vintage lines, and this reference is a particularly cool example. The textured blue-grey dial, original sharkskin strap and compact 35mm case make it a standout piece from the 1970s. Examples in this condition, retaining original strap and buckle, are becoming increasingly scarce — and you may struggle to find another like it.
