

Nautical Crest Intaglio Signet Ring - Saddingtons Jewellery Stand 375
£2,200.00

A Striking And Substantial Vintage Nautical Crest Intaglio Signet Ring. In 18ct yellow gold dating to the 1980s, and distinguished by a finely carved intaglio crest of likely nautical inspiration. Crafted in rich yellow gold and weighing an impressive 15 grams, this is a piece that carries immediate presence on the hand — a true statement signet ring in the traditional sense. The intaglio carving, cut in reverse as a seal, evokes the long-standing heritage of signet rings as markers of identity, authority, and lineage. The crest itself suggests maritime or naval associations, lending the ring a sense of story and potential provenance beyond its already strong aesthetic appeal. Whether originally commissioned as a personal seal or later acquired for its symbolism. Ideal for a collector of unusual signet rings, or a buyer seeking a piece with individuality and depth, this ring sits comfortably between traditional gentleman's jewellery and contemporary statement wear. A rare opportunity to acquire a heavily weighted, intaglio-carved gold signet ring with both decorative and symbolic appeal.
