

Movado 14789 Serviced
£2,150.00

Watch: Movado Triple Date Calendar
Stock Number: CHW5115A
Price: £2150.00

Movado Triple Date Calendar 14789 – 1950s – Rose Gold plated & Steel – Manual Wind – Serviced April 2026

A really lovely example of a 1950s Movado Triple Date Calendar, offering excellent value for a watch of this quality and heritage. Reference 14789, this piece is presented in great overall condition, with only minor, honest signs of wear consistent with age. The dial shows a wonderful natural patina — lightly aged yet retaining all of its original character and charm.

Recently serviced in April 2026, this watch has been checked through our workshop and is running well, ready to be enjoyed.

- Era: 1950s
- Case Size: 33mm
- Case Material: Steel case with rose?gold plated bezel and steel caseback
- Dial: Original dial with natural patina
- Date Display: Peripheral date track in blue
- Calendar Layout: Day and month apertures flanking the sub?seconds
- Seconds: Sub?seconds at 6 o'clock
- Crystal: Plexiglass
- Movement: Movado Calibre 470, manual wind
- Service: Serviced April 2026
- Water Resistance: Not waterproof due to age

Condition Report

Case: Very good vintage condition with light wear.

Dial: Original with attractive natural patina; mild discolouration consistent with age but no loss of detail.

Hands & Markers: Original and well preserved.

Crystal: Plexiglass clear with light age?appropriate wear.

Overall: Excellent condition for a mid?century triple calendar watch.

Manual wind Calibre 470 operating correctly.

Our View

Vintage Movado calendar watches from the 1950s are admired for their elegant complications and refined design, and this Triple Date Calendar is a prime example. The balanced dial layout, warm rose?gold bezel, and beautifully aged dial give it real charm and presence. Recently serviced and full of character, it would be a standout addition to any vintage collection.

What's Included

Secure packaging

Insured shipping

Antique ref: CHW5115A