

FOPE "Hula Hoop" Diamond Ring
£2,850.00

18K Yellow & White Gold | ~0.50ct Diamonds | London 2003

A Sculptural Expression of Italian Gold

An effortlessly sophisticated design by Fope, this striking “Hula Hoop” ring captures the maison’s signature balance of engineering, fluidity, and understated luxury.

Crafted in rich 18K yellow gold, the ring is defined by its bold, high-polish central dome—framed by two elegant white gold bands, each delicately set with a continuous line of brilliant-cut diamonds. The result is a sculptural, layered composition that gives the illusion of movement while remaining beautifully cohesive.

Design & Wearability

This is jewellery for those who understand restraint.

The polished yellow gold dome reflects light with a mirror-like depth, while the diamond-set white gold bands introduce a refined, continuous sparkle—creating a subtle interplay of contrast and brilliance.

Equally suited as:

A signature everyday ring, or

A modern cocktail piece

...it transitions effortlessly from day to evening wear.

Condition

Presented in very good condition, with only light surface wear consistent with careful use. The gold retains a rich lustre and the diamonds remain bright and well-set.

Why We Love It

A quietly confident piece that doesn’t rely on overt branding—this ring embodies the essence of
