

Bvlgari B.zero1 Four-Band Diamond Ring in 18k White Gold £4,950.00

A bold and unmistakably iconic B.zero1 diamond ring by Bvlgari, beautifully crafted in 18k white gold and set with shimmering pavé diamonds.

First introduced at the turn of the millennium, the B.zero1 collection draws its inspiration from the architectural grandeur of Rome's Colosseum, reflecting the curved lines and structural rhythm of the ancient monument. The result is one of Bvlgari's most recognisable modern designs, combining Italian engineering with striking contemporary elegance.

This example features the classic four-band tubogas spiral construction, a hallmark of the B.zero1 design, framed by the signature BVLGARI engraved outer rims. The central bands are adorned with rows of pavé-set round brilliant-cut diamonds, adding a refined brilliance that beautifully contrasts with the polished white gold surfaces.

Substantial yet elegantly balanced, the four-band model offers a confident architectural presence on the finger while remaining comfortable for everyday wear.

The ring is signed BVLGARI, marked for 18k gold, and is a size 53. It is accompanied by its original Bvlgari presentation box.

With an original retail price of approximately £11,480, this piece represents one of Bvlgari's most enduring and sought-after contemporary designs.

A striking and highly collectible ring that perfectly captures the bold Roman heritage and modern luxury synonymous with Bvlgari.
