Girard Perregaux Vintage Tank Style – Gold Plated – 21mm – Manual Wind – 1970s

A difficult watch to find a direct comparable for, and even harder to definitively reference, which only adds to its charm and appeal. This is a very cool and unusual vintage ladies Girard Perregaux, believed to date from the 1970s and presented in excellent overall condition.

Featuring a gold plated tank style case with an integrated bracelet, it has a distinctive design typical of the period and remains both stylish and wearable today.

Our View

This is a wonderfully unique Girard Perregaux that stands out for its design and rarity. The combination of black dial, diamond accents and gold plated integrated case/bracelet makes it a true 1970s statement piece. With very few comparable examples available, this is an excellent opportunity to acquire something genuinely different — both collectible and highly wearable.
