Modernist Sapphire & Diamond Spinner Ring. A striking modernist ring featuring articulated moving bands set with deep blue sapphires and brilliant-cut diamonds. The inner band is silver and the bands are crafted in yellow gold. With an architectural, sculptural feel, the design allows the individual gold bands to rotate independently, creating subtle movement and interaction when worn. The bold geometric styling gives the piece a distinctly contemporary aesthetic while retaining the craftsmanship of a hand-finished studio jewellery. An unusual and highly wearable statement ring. The piece is by an unsigned designer and is excellently made with a very high level of craftsmanship.
