

Channel Set Baguette Diamond Ring - Saddingtons Jewellery Stand 375
£1,995.00

Channel Set Baguette Diamond Ring. A sleek and elegant channel set diamond ring crafted in rich 18ct yellow gold and fully hallmarked for Edinburgh, 2005. Inside the band is also an 'MS' makers mark, a '750' gold mark and a '0.75ct' diamond weight mark. The ring is set with a continuous row of 15 baguette cut diamonds totalling 0.75cts in a refined channel setting, creating a clean and sophisticated line of brilliance across the finger. The geometric baguette cuts give the ring a distinctly timeless and architectural feel, beautifully balanced by the warmth of the polished yellow gold mount. Comfortable and highly wearable, this piece works effortlessly as a wedding band, eternity ring, stacking ring, or understated everyday diamond piece. Its minimalist design allows the quality of the diamonds and craftsmanship to speak for themselves, making it an enduring classic with contemporary appeal. A versatile and elegant diamond ring with crisp sparkle and a luxurious, substantial feel.
