

1908 Scroll Shoulders Gold Signet Ring - Saddingtons Jewellery Stand
375
£1,020.00

1908 Scroll Shoulders Gold Signet Ring. A handsome antique 18ct gold signet ring, hallmarked in Birmingham in 1908 and bearing the maker's mark S.H. Crafted during the Edwardian period, the ring features an elegant oval signet face framed by beautifully engraved scroll shoulders, a detail that adds character and refinement while remaining timeless in design. Traditionally worn as symbols of family heritage and status, signet rings remain highly sought after today for their versatility and enduring style. The plain shield-shaped face could be engraved with initials or a crest, although many collectors prefer to preserve the ring exactly as it has survived. Weighing 5.8 grams, this is a well-balanced and wearable antique signet ring, equally suited to everyday wear or as a meaningful heirloom piece.
