

Antique Gold Acorn Earrings - Saddingtons Jewellery Stand 375 £245.00

Cute Antique Gold Acorn Earrings. A charming pair of antique 9ct gold acorn drop earrings, beautifully crafted in a naturalistic design. Each earring is formed as a finely modelled gold acorn suspended beneath a polished gold bead, creating a delicate articulated drop that moves gracefully when worn. Acorns were a popular motif in Victorian jewellery, symbolising strength, prosperity and new beginnings, making these earrings both decorative and meaningful. Wonderfully versatile, they are the perfect size for everyday wear while retaining the character and craftsmanship associated with antique jewellery. Their warm golden glow and elegant simplicity make them equally suited to casual styling or more formal occasions. From the top of the stud to the bottom of the acorn the earrings measure 1.8cm each weighing 0.8g. A delightful addition to any antique jewellery collection and an increasingly sought-after example of nature-inspired Victorian design.
