Antique 1909 Gold Signet Ring - Saddingtons Jewellery Stand 375 £1,595.00

Antique 1909 Gold Signet Ring. A handsome antique 18ct gold signet ring by Charles Green & Son, Birmingham, dating from 1909. Crafted in rich yellow gold, the ring features a traditional oval signet face supported by elegant split shoulders that taper gracefully into the shank. The clean, polished face remains suitable for engraving, while the refined proportions and understated design make it a timeless piece of gentleman's jewellery. Signet rings have long been associated with heritage, identity and personal style, and this example perfectly captures the enduring appeal of Edwardian craftsmanship. The ring weighs 10.4g. Whether worn as a statement ring or added to a collection of antique jewellery, it offers both character and history in equal measure. Hallmarked for 18ct gold with the maker's mark of Charles Green & Son, Birmingham 1909.
