Blancpain Villeret Ultra-Slim 6223
£3,200.00

The Blancpain Villeret Ultra-Slim (Reference 6223) is a masterclass in classic, high-end Swiss horology. This piece is powered by the exceptional Blancpain Calibre 1150—an ultra-thin, beautifully finished automatic movement. Packed with 28 jewels and built from 210 individual components, it utilizes dual barrels to achieve a massive 100-hour (4-day) power reserve, ensuring it keeps running flawlessly even if left off the wrist for a long weekend.
This particular watch is preserved in excellent condition and has been hardly worn. It comes fitted to its original, crisp Blancpain alligator leather strap. Providing the wearer with incredible versatility and comfort, the watch includes both its original classic pin buckle and a secure, convenient deployment spring clasp.
Visually, the timepiece is striking. The crisp white dial serves as a perfect backdrop for the polished, applied steel Roman numerals and elegant, signature leaf-shaped hands. A discrete and highlylegible date window is perfectly positioned at 3 o'clock. While traditional Villeret models often featuresmaller vintage proportions, this reference adopts the highly desirable "bigger" 38mm case size.Melding a larger modern diameter with an ultra-slim thickness of just 9.15mm, it delivers acommanding yet effortlessly low-profile presence on the wrist.
