1.03ct Three Stone Diamond Gypsy Ring - Saddingtons Jewellery Stand 375
£5,450.00

1.03ct Three Stone Diamond Gypsy Ring. A magnificent three stone diamond gypsy ring crafted in rich 18ct yellow gold, set with approximately 1.03 carats of old-cut diamonds. The central diamond is flanked by two graduated diamonds, each securely star set into the substantial gold mount, creating one of the most iconic and enduring designs of the Victorian era. The broad polished gold band showcases the diamonds beautifully, whilst the traditional star settings maximise light and add distinctive character to the ring. Gypsy rings were highly fashionable during the late nineteenth century and remain among the most sought-after antique ring designs today due to their practicality, comfort and timeless elegance. With a combined diamond weight of approximately 1.03 carats and a substantial gold weight of 15.8 grams, this ring possesses an impressive presence on the hand whilst remaining exceptionally comfortable to wear. The Edwardian transitional old-cut diamonds display the broad flashes of light and individual character that collectors and antique jewellery enthusiasts particularly admire.
