

A very fine 18ct Yellow Gold Ruby & Diamond, Chequer Board Ring, Birmingham Hallmarks 1908
POA

A charming 18ct Yellow Gold Ruby & Diamond, Chequer Board Ring that captures the elegance of the Edwardian era. This piece makes a sophisticated and wearable addition to any fine jewellery collection.

The Rubies have been measured in their mounts as approximately 0.65 Carats (unweighed), similarly the four Old European Cut Diamonds at approximately 0.50 Carats (un-weighed). It has been observed that one of the Rubies may have been replaced (claws checked by work-shop, as in good order.)

Complete with clear Birmingham Hallmarks, this lovely ring dates Circa1908 and brings a quiet, enduring beauty from a bygone time.

Birmingham Hallmarks

Circa 1908

Period	20th Century
Condition	Consistent with age
Materials	Yellow Gold
Main Gemstone	Ruby
Carat for Gold	18 K
Secondary Gemstone	Diamond

Antique ref: 5883