Our View

The Bicompax 002 perfectly captures the charm of vintage chronographs while offering the practicality and reliability of a modern watch. Its balanced 38mm case size, silver dial and classic two-register layout make it one of the most attractive offerings in its price bracket.

Baltic has earned a loyal following amongst enthusiasts, and it's easy to see why. The attention to detail, vintage-inspired design and excellent proportions make this a watch that looks far more expensive than its price point suggests.

A fantastic opportunity to acquire a full-set example with remaining manufacturer warranty and superb wrist presence.
