

Boucheron Art Nouveau Diamond and Platinum Bracelet, Circa 1910, 6.50 Carats
£40,000.00

A French, Art Nouveau, Boucheron diamond and platinum bracelet, featuring repeating links of forget-me-not type flowers, rub over set with old European-cut diamonds, within fine curling loops, grain set with rose-cut diamonds with an individual set diamond in each loop, in a millegreine edged rub over setting, with leaf sprays linking the loops, grain set with an old-cut diamond and rose-cut diamonds either side, onto open sided galleries, with a French rhino head mark, for platinum, signed Boucheron Paris, with yellow gold tongue, with scratched inventory marks: 48042 tfltt and a safety chain, circa 1910, in a brown leather case, with Boucheron logo. Estimated total diamond weight 6.50 Carats. In our opinion the colour is H to I and our opinion of the clarity is VS to SI.

Approximate weight: 19.27 grams

Origin French
Period 1910s
Style Art Nouveau
Condition Good
Materials Platinum

Main Gemstone Diamond
Main Gemstone Cut Old European Cut
Main Gemstone Clarity VS-SI
Main Gemstone Carat 6.50 carats
Main Diamond Colour H-I
Dimensions Length 175mm, width 11.7mm

Antique ref: XAZ17626T2