

Victorian Rock Crystal & Multi-gem Locket Pendant - Saddingtons
Jewellery Stand 375
£1,495.00

A beautiful Victorian Rock Crystal & Multi-gem Locket Pendant, finely crafted in yellow gold and silver, combining elegant craftsmanship with delicate ruby and emerald highlights. Designed as a sentimental keepsake, the pendant features a polished oval rock crystal panel through which a treasured photograph, miniature or memento can be displayed while remaining protected. The decorative frame is set with a border of sparkling rose-cut diamonds in silver, creating a subtle shimmer that perfectly complements the refined openwork design. A vibrant emerald is set within the upper foliate scroll, while a ruby accent at the base provides a pleasing balance of colour and enhances the pendant's graceful proportions. The reverse opens with a hinge to reveal the locket compartment, a feature that made these pieces highly personal during the Victorian era. Locketswere often worn close to the heart, preserving portraits or cherished keepsakes of loved ones and serving as enduring symbols of affection and remembrance. The pendant measures 25mm x 35.5mm with a 0.83mm drop bale. The pendant does not come with a chain, a wide variety of chains are available upon request.
