

A selection of rare silver kinetic articulated ear pendants by Barbara Cartlidge, circa 1960s. Mark Constable Unit 301 POA

Barbara Cartlidge was a jewellery designer and gallerist whose distinctive aesthetic was inspired by Scandinavian design, particularly the work of renowned Swedish jeweller Vivianna Torun Bülow-Hübe. Her creations reflect the same sculptural simplicity, organic forms and timeless elegance that define the Scandinavian modernist movement.

Origin	British
Period	1960s
Style	Classical
Condition	Excellent
Materials	Sterling Silver

Antique ref: 1088