www.graysantiques.co.uk

Gerda Flöckinger Rare kinetic sterling silver, pearl and citrine long dangle earrings. Mark Constable, Unit 301.
£1,600.00

A rare pair of kinetic sterling silver long dangle earrings by Gerda Flöckinger, set with lustrous pearls and vibrant citrine. Beautifully articulated to create graceful movement when worn. Length: 8cm.

Gerda Flöckinger (b. 1927, Innsbruck, Austria) is widely regarded as one of the foremost pioneers of twentieth-century jewellery design. Renowned for her sculptural, highly tactile creations, she transformed contemporary jewellery through an innovative approach to goldsmithing that seamlessly combines movement, form and exceptional craftsmanship.

Origin	British
Period	20th Century
Style	Classical
Condition	Excellent
Materials	Sterling Silver
Main Gemstone	Citrine
Secondary Gemstone	Pearl

Antique ref: 2008