Our View

The Classic Fusion perfectly demonstrates Hublot's famous Art of Fusion philosophy. Combining lightweight titanium, contemporary styling and Swiss automatic watchmaking, it delivers a modern luxury sports watch experience that is both comfortable and highly versatile.

The 45mm titanium case offers superb wrist presence while remaining remarkably light on the wrist, while the blue sunray dial adds a level of sophistication that allows the watch to transition effortlessly from casual wear to more formal occasions.

Presented as a complete set, in near immaculate condition and at a significant saving against retail, this is an excellent opportunity to acquire one of Hublot's most successful modern designs.
