

Art Deco Platinum, Diamond, and Sapphire Target Ring POA

A magnificent exemplar of the Art Deco era, this exquisite target ring embodies the geometric precision and bold colour contrasts that defined the 1920s and 30s.

At its heart lies a prominent rectangular radiant-cut central diamond, exhibiting a charming, warm hint of colour characteristic of antique stones. The central gem is securely collet-set within a stepped, platinum gallery. It is framed by a striking halo of calibr -cut deep blue sapphires, meticulously French-set to create a seamless border of color.
