

1920's Opal Bead Necklace With Diamond Clasp - Saddingtons Jewellery
Stand 375
£1,695.00

A Stunning 1920's Opal Bead Necklace With Diamond Clasp composed of graduating natural opal beads interspersed with faceted rock crystal spacers. The necklace is finished with an elegant cluster clasp, centred by a luminous oval opal surrounded by a sparkling halo of old cut diamonds. Displaying the refined elegance of the early Art Deco period, the necklace combines the ethereal beauty of natural opals with the crisp brilliance of diamonds. The opal beads are enhanced by the rock crystal spacers, adding lightness and subtle sparkle throughout the design. At its centre are three beautifully graduated feature opal beads, adding balance and visual interest to the design. The opals have a wonderful play of colour showcasing hues of blue, green, yellow and red. Wonderfully wearable and exceptionally versatile it measures 16.5 inches.
