Our View

The Monza is one of TAG Heuer's most distinctive and underrated models. The cushion-shaped case, racing-inspired dial layout and compact 38mm proportions make it an incredibly wearable chronograph that stands apart from the more common Carrera and Monaco references.

Powered by the proven ETA 2894-2 chronograph movement and offered as a complete set, this CR2113-0 is an increasingly desirable watch amongst collectors.

A superb opportunity to acquire one of TAG Heuer's most charismatic motorsport-inspired chronographs.
