

Rose Gold 16.5? Twisted Trombone Link Albert Chain - Saddingtons Jewellery Stand 375
£2,975.00

This Edwardian Rose Gold 16.5? Twisted Trombone Link Albert Chain is a substantial antique chain, weighing an impressive 39.4 grams and crafted in warm 9ct rose gold. The chain features elongated twisted trombone-style links, creating a beautifully fluid design, and retains its traditional T-bar and dog clip fittings. Originally Albert chains were designed to carry a gentleman's pocket watch, but today they make wonderfully wearable antique necklaces and are particularly sought after for their weight, craftsmanship and versatility. At 16.5 inches, this is an excellent length for wearing close to the neck, either alone as a statement or neck stack.
