Cartier Santos 100 XL 2656 – Automatic – 38mm x 51mm – 2012

A superb example of the iconic Cartier Santos 100 XL reference 2656, presented in mint condition and accompanied by its original Cartier boxes.

A modern interpretation of one of Cartier's most celebrated designs, the Santos 100 XL combines unmistakable styling with impressive wrist presence. This particular example is especially noteworthy as we believe it has seen little to no actual wear, having reportedly been received as a gift and retained with the majority of its original protective stickers still intact.

Our View

The Santos is one of the most recognisable watch designs ever created, and the Santos 100 XL takes that heritage and adds contemporary proportions for outstanding wrist presence.

The combination of the oversized case, white Roman numeral dial, exposed bezel screws and blue cabochon crown creates a watch that is unmistakably Cartier. The automatic movement adds further appeal, making this a highly desirable alternative to quartz-powered models.

With its exceptional condition and apparent lack of wear, this is a particularly desirable Santos 100 XL and a fantastic opportunity for both collectors and enthusiasts alike.
