

Cartier Must de Cartier Ronde Vendome Vermeil 1990s Red Dial £1,500.00

Cartier Must de Cartier Ronde Vendome Vermeil 1990s Red Dial
CHW7393
£1500

A refined and elegant unisex timepiece, this Cartier Must de Cartier Ronde Vendome from the 1990s showcases the timeless design language that makes Cartier instantly recognisable. With its red dial and cabochon sapphire crown, this watch embodies understated Parisian luxury. Recent service and keeping good time.

Key Features

Model: Cartier Ronde Vendome Must de Cartier Vermeil

Case Size: 30mm (32mm including crown)

Case Material: Vermeil – sterling silver base with 20-micron gold plating

Dial: Deep red and Cartier signature

Hands: Gold-tone sword hands

Crystal: Mineral glass – light marks consistent with age

Strap: New unworn leather strap with buckle (generic, not Cartier signed)

Crown: Original with sapphire cabochon

Condition

Dial: Original, in very good condition for age

Hands: Original sword-style hands, good condition

Crystal: Original mineral, with some marks

Case: Vermeil case in good condition – light wear and surface scratches consistent with age

Caseback: Cartier Paris signed, 925 silver hallmarked, clear legible engravings, light wear only

Movement: Quartz, keeping accurate time

Strap: Brand new leather strap, unworn

Our View

The Cartier Must de Cartier Ronde Vendome Vermeil is a quintessential 1990s Cartier design — versatile, slim, and unmistakably elegant. With its striking red dial, it balances bold contrast with refined detail. This is a great opportunity to acquire a well-preserved, unisex Cartier classic that wears as beautifully today as it did when it was first released.

Antique ref: CHW7393