

Vintage Emerald-Cut Aquamarine and Diamond Ring - Saddingtons Jewellery Stand 375 £3,400.00

A spectacular Vintage Emerald-Cut Aquamarine and Diamond Ring. Displaying exceptional clarity and a captivating sea blue hue, the 13ct aquamarine has been beautifully cut to maximise its remarkable transparency and brilliance. The magnificent centre stone is secured within an elegant four-claw 18ct white gold setting and complemented by trios of round brilliant-cut diamonds to each shoulder. These sparkling diamond accents provide the perfect balance, enhancing the beauty of the aquamarine while allowing its extraordinary size and colour to take centre stage. The sophisticated open gallery and split shoulder allows for light to enter the gemstone from every angle and intensifying its brilliance. Despite its impressive scale, the clean architectural lines and balanced proportions ensure the ring remains elegant and remarkably wearable. Aquamarine, a member of the beryl family, has long been prized for its tranquil blue colour and exceptional natural clarity. Fine aquamarines approaching this size are increasingly scarce, making this a particularly impressive example of vintage jewellery.
