

Edwardian Platinum & Diamond Bar Brooch circa 1910
£2,450.00

An elegant Edwardian platinum bar brooch, beautifully set with graduated old-cut diamonds in a finely pierced and millegrain-detailed mount. The symmetrical design centres on a striking vertical cluster of four diamonds, with further graduated diamonds extending along the tapering bar. Width: 7.5cm approx.

A classic example of the delicate platinum and diamond work associated with the Edwardian period, circa 1901–1910.

Period	Early 1900s
---------------	-------------

Antique ref: FTJHIXE1-1109262