

Patrick Mavros Silver Hippo Bracelet & Pendant - Saddingtons Jewellery
Stand 375
POA

The Patrick Mavros silver hippo bracelet & pendant is a wonderfully characterful matching set inspired by the wildlife of Africa. The bracelet is formed from a series of 7 beautifully sculpted hippopotamuses, individually articulated with silver connecting links. Each hippo is modelled in wonderful detail, with expressive facial features to the front and engraved legs, feet and body detailing continuing across the reverse — a lovely detail that can only really be appreciated when the bracelet is handled. Their wonderfully rounded bodies contrast with the finely detailed faces, capturing the distinctive character and humour for which Patrick Mavros jewellery is known. Accompanying the bracelet is a substantial matching hippo pendant, modelled with the same expressive face, rounded body and finely worked detail. Together they make a particularly charming and highly wearable set. Combined the pieces weigh 45.8g. The bracelet is 7.5" long and the pendant measures 0.6" x 1.1" with a drop of 0.6cm.
