

Victorian Turquoise & Diamond Heart Pendant Spectrum Antiques £3,250.00

A charming Victorian heart, pavé-set throughout with rose-cut diamonds in silver and centred with a single turquoise cabochon of soft, even blue. The diamonds are set in silver over a gold back — the standard of fine nineteenth-century work, done to keep the stones bright and white — and the whole domed heart glitters beautifully in low light, exactly as rose-cuts were designed to.
