Our View

The Ladymatic is often overlooked within Omega's catalogue, which is surprising considering the level of engineering on offer. Unlike many ladies' luxury watches that prioritise appearance over mechanics, the Ladymatic houses a true manufacture automatic movement visible through the sapphire caseback.

The black Supernova dial creates a stunning visual effect, while the wave-patterned case side and ceramic inner casebody add distinctive details rarely found in this segment. The 34mm case size is ideal for daily wear and offers a substantial yet elegant wrist presence.
