Our View

While the Speedmaster Professional often steals the spotlight, references such as the 178.0058 offer exceptional value and everyday practicality. The automatic movement, date display and distinctive blue dial make this a far more versatile daily wearer whilst still retaining the iconic Speedmaster DNA.

The unpolished case is a major plus, preserving the originality and sharpness that many collectors actively seek. The recent service and pressure test provide added confidence for its next owner.

A rare and attractive Speedmaster that stands out from the crowd.
