

Millennium 1.34ct Three-Stone Diamond Ring by HIRSH - Saddingtons Jewellery Stand 375
£3,950.00

A beautifully made millennium 1.34ct three-stone diamond ring by HIRSH, centred by a striking 1.07ct emerald-cut diamond, flanked by two half-moon cut diamonds weighing a combined 0.27ct. The central diamond is graded H colour and VVSII clarity and measures 5.67 x 5.87 x 3.68mm. The ring is accompanied by a 2001 valuation by HIRSH. Hand-made by HIRSH in platinum, the ring has a clean, elegant design that allows the exceptional central diamond to take centre stage, with the half-moon diamonds providing additional brilliance to either side. The ring bears the Millennium mark dating it to 2000 and is a fine example of contemporary British jewellery from the turn of the millennium. The ring weighs 4.6g and can be resized.
