

Turquoise Diamond Necklace - Charlotte Sayers £1,550.00

An elegant early 20th-century turquoise and diamond pendant necklace, circa 1910, designed as two graduated sugarloaf cabochon turquoise of a beautiful vivid blue colour. Each turquoise is accented at the cardinal points with millegrain-set old-cut diamonds, with further old-cut diamonds set along the delicate knife-edge bar connecting the two stones. The pendant is suspended from a fine cable-link chain, creating a wonderfully delicate and elegant Edwardian design.

The necklace measures 40.5cm in length

Weight: 4.6 grams

Condition	Very good
------------------	-----------

Antique ref: CB461