A striking vintage platinum diamond line bracelet, expertly crafted in a refined alternating design of round brilliant and baguette-cut diamonds. The structured geometry of the baguettes paired with the lively sparkle of the brilliant cuts creates a beautifully balanced look — elegant, timeless, and effortlessly wearable.

Set throughout in PT950 platinum, each diamond is securely held in a sleek articulated link construction that allows the bracelet to sit fluidly on the wrist while maintaining its crisp, architectural profile. Whether worn alone for a classic statement or layered alongside other fine pieces, this bracelet is a standout example of understated luxury.

Accompanied by a World Gemological Institute (WGI) certificate, confirming a total diamond weight of approximately 5.60ct, with diamonds graded approximately G–H colour and VS2–SI1 clarity (as mounted).
