

9ct Albert C
£3,050.00

A beautifully crafted antique 9ct yellow gold Albert chain necklace, exuding timeless English craftsmanship and subtle sophistication. Traditionally designed yet effortlessly wearable, this versatile piece can be styled as both a statement necklace or a refined bracelet wrap.

The chain features solid curb links with a warm, rosy-yellow hue, terminating in a traditional T-bar and lobster clasp, both hallmarked and matching in tone. The clasp operates smoothly and securely, while the chain retains a pleasing weight and fluid drape — a testament to its quality manufacture.

Fully hallmarked in Birmingham, the piece is a fine example of early 20th-century British goldsmithing, combining durability with understated luxury.

Details:

Date: Early 20th century

Origin: Birmingham, United Kingdom

Material: 9ct Yellow Gold

Length: 16.25 inches (41 cm)

Weight: 37.7 g

Markings: Full British hallmarks

Design: Curb link with T-bar and secure lobster clasp

Condition: Excellent antique condition, light surface wear consistent with age

A classic and wearable Albert chain — rich in character, beautifully weighted, and perfect for layering or standalone wear.

https://www.spectrumantiques.com/products/9ct-albert-chain-2

Antique ref: SAO152