

Large 15ct
£2,950.00

A bold and beautifully crafted 15ct yellow gold curb link bracelet, complete with its original heart-shaped padlock clasp and safety chain. Exuding the opulence of the late Victorian to early Edwardian period, this piece showcases substantial semi-hollow curb links that offer a striking, luxurious look while remaining comfortable and well-balanced on the wrist.

The padlock clasp — marked “15ct” with rubbed assay details — operates smoothly and securely, complemented by the original safety chain for added peace of mind. Each 10 mm link is meticulously polished, radiating the deep, buttery hue characteristic of high-carat antique gold.

This bracelet's generous 7.5-inch length and 28.47 g weight give it both presence and proportion, making it a standout example of English craftsmanship from the turn of the century.
