

Vintage 18c
£1,950.00

A stylish mid-20th-century diamond bracelet, finely crafted in 18k white gold and likely of American origin, circa 1950.

The bracelet features an elegant repeating marquise-link pattern, each section pavé-set with brilliant-cut diamonds. The alternating openwork design gives the piece a refined lightness, allowing the diamonds to catch the light beautifully with every movement.

With a total diamond weight of approximately 1.05 carats, the stones are of H colour and VS clarity, offering a bright, lively sparkle. The bracelet fastens securely with a concealed box clasp and safety catch.
