

Late 19th Century Brooch of a Standing Grouse Pavé Set with Diamonds,
English circa 1875.
£3,950.00

A finely made late 19th century brooch of a standing grouse pavé set in silver and gold with old brilliant cut diamonds and a ruby eye. The eye catching red enamel crest is however a more unusual find on a grouse brooch of this period. Safety catch to the pin.

Measures 40mm in height x 12mm in width.

Antique piece (over 100 years old).

Victorian, 19th century, English circa 1875.

Central London based retailer.

Stock no. 1992

Origin	British
Period	19th Century
Style	Victorian
Condition	Excellent
Materials	Yellow Gold
Main Gemstone	Diamond
Stone Cut	Round Cut
Dimensions	40mm in height x 12mm in width

Antique ref: 1992